TWO PAGES SUMMARY REPORT

Summary Report on Celebration of Death Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi

Event Date: January 30, 2023 Chief Guest: Prof. Namrata Chindarkar

Introduction

The Punyatithi, also known as Hutatma Din, marking the martyrdom of Mahatma Gandhi, was commemorated with solemn reverence and insightful discourse at our institution on January 30, 2023. The event brought together students, faculty, and distinguished guests to reflect on Gandhi's enduring legacy and its relevance today. Anchoring was done by Bhushan Jadhav

Chief Guest's Welcome

The event commenced with a heartfelt welcome by the principal, who introduced the chief guest, Prof. Namrata Chindarkar.

Student Speeches

The event featured speeches by three students, each focusing on different aspects of Mahatma Gandhi's life and teachings:

Sonal Vyas: Educational Philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi

Sonal Vyas delved into Gandhi's views on education, presenting a compelling argument for his belief in holistic education that combines intellectual growth with character development. She emphasized Gandhi's advocacy for practical skills and moral values over mere academic achievements. Vyas highlighted the relevance of Gandhi's Nai Talim or 'Basic Education' model, which integrates learning with craft and community service, suggesting it as a blueprint for contemporary educational reforms.

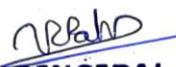

Nandita Prasanna: Mahatma Gandhi – An Ambassador of Peace

Nandita Prasanna spoke passionately about Gandhi's role as a global ambassador of peace. She recounted Gandhi's tireless efforts to foster communal harmony and his non-violent resistance against colonial oppression. Prasanna illustrated how Gandhi's commitment to peace transcended borders, influencing global leaders like Martin Luther King Jr. and Nelson Mandela. She underscored the importance of Gandhi's peace principles in addressing modern-day conflicts and promoting international solidarity.

Nilesh Khushwaha: Mahatma Gandhi and Self

Nilesh Khushwaha offered a personal reflection on Gandhi's impact on individual self-growth and moral development. He shared anecdotes from Gandhi's life that demonstrated his unwavering commitment to self-discipline and ethical living. Khushwaha encouraged the audience to internalize Gandhi's teachings, suggesting that personal transformation inspired by Gandhi's principles can lead to broader social change.

Ref. No. Principal's Speech

Date :

Principal Mrs. Vaishali Patil delivered an insightful speech on the relevance of Mahatma Gandhi's thoughts in contemporary times. She discussed how Gandhi's ideas on sustainability, rural development, and self-reliance are increasingly pertinent in today's world facing ecological and economic challenges. Mrs. Patil advocated for the application of Gandhian principles in developing sustainable living practices and fostering inclusive development. She also highlighted Gandhi's vision of a just society rooted in equality and respect for all individuals, urging the community to embody these ideals in daily life.

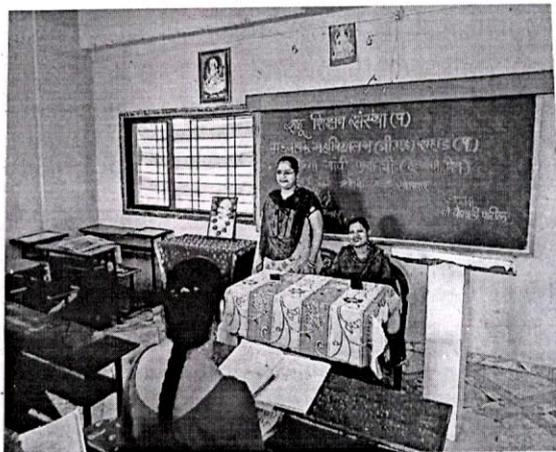

Chief Guest's address

Prof. Chindarkar, an esteemed academician, delivered an inspiring keynote address. She eloquently spoke about Gandhi's philosophy of non-violence (Ahimsa) and truth (Satya), emphasizing how these principles are not just historical artifacts but timeless values that continue to guide ethical conduct in contemporary society. She highlighted the global influence of Gandhi's methods in various movements for justice and equality.

Conclusion and Vote of Thanks

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Nirmala Kumari Sharma. She expressed gratitude to Prof. Namrata Chindarkar for her enlightening keynote address, the participating students for their thoughtful speeches, and the organizing committee for their hard work in making the event a success. Sharma also thanked the attendees for their presence and engagement, reinforcing the significance of reflecting on Gandhi's legacy.

The celebration of Punyatithi served not only as a remembrance of Mahatma Gandhi's martyrdom but also as a reaffirmation of his enduring influence on contemporary thought and practice. The speeches and discussions underscored the timeless relevance of Gandhi's teachings and inspired all present to carry forward his vision of a peaceful and just world.
